It's our annual Music Issue, and we've put together a compilation of the fall collections that sing to us. Although the ELLE fashion team's musical tastes are all over the map (from the Virgins to Bob Marley), going to a concert invariably inspires us to channel our inner rock star (or band-aid!). So whether you're backstage, balcony right, or front and center in a muddy mosh pit, we guarantee these clothes will score you a VIP status.
